Please make sure your child(ren) are dressed appropriately for this event. Hats, boots, snow-pants, warm jackets, layers, scarves & gloves or mittens are essential for students to safely be outside for any period of time.

CHROMEBOOKS AND CHARGERS

If you borrowed a chromebook and charger, please return it to the school. Thank you.

LIFT YOUR VOICE 2022!

In keeping with DDSB's Multi Year Strategic Plan, CCPS students and staff are taking part in Lift Your Voice 2022! This 5-part virtual series uniquely ushers in a movement that will promote equity, inclusivity and a sense of community while providing student leadership opportunities through the engagement of black excellence education and a virtual choir.

Staff and students from K-8 students will have an opportunity to engage with "History in the Making" where Lift Your Voice Student leaders will celebrate and highlight impactful Black leaders and experience the grand finale "The Virtual Choir performance".

- Tuesday, February 22 to Friday, February 25 - Video Release - History in the Making
- Monday, February 28 - Video Release - Lift Your Voice Virtual Choir

This week classes will be taking part in Lift Your Voice activities

Thoughts and videos classes are discussing are:

- Think about the most important woman in your life and how has she been a positive influence?
- How can you be kind to people around you?
